

If I do not want someone to call me why is it that I must either pay to not have my phone number listed or not even get a main line but rather live with a cell phone so I am not overwhelmed with telemarketers. I realize they are just trying to offer a service but when it becomes so great that you decide to not have a main line which bothers me because then calling 911 from my cell makes it rather difficult to trace if need be.